

Club Code of Conduct – Athletes (18 and over)

This code is something that you as an athlete should refer to in relation to your rights as an athlete, the respect you should expect but also that which you demonstrate to other members, what is expected of you in terms of listening and being listened to and your behaviour as a member of the club.

As a member of our club, you have the right to:

- Feel safe and know how you can raise concerns.
- Be listened to.
- Be involved and contribute towards decisions within the club or activity.
- Be respected by us and other team members and be treated fairly.
- Feel welcomed, valued and not judged based on your race, gender, sexuality, faith, ability or any other relevant characteristic.
- Be encouraged and developed with our help and support.
- Be looked after if there's an accident or injury and have your parents/guardians/emergency contact informed, where appropriate.

As a member of our club or activity we expect you to:

- Be aware of Wavepower and adhere to relevant guidance.
- Adhere to the Swim England regulations, Code of Ethics, Club Constitution and rules.
- Keep yourself safe by listening to your coach or teacher, behave responsibly and speak out when something isn't right.
- Let someone know if you are leaving the premises (at either training or a competition) without agreeing with your coach, teacher or team manager first. This is just as important for our adult members as well as those under 18.
- Take care of our equipment and premises as if they were your own.
- Let someone know if you are running later, particularly at a competition where it may impact on other members.
- Let someone know if you have any difficulties attending training or competitions.
- Bring the right kit to training and competitions.
- Support and encourage your team mates.
- Respect volunteers and competitors at competitions.
- Respect the committee members, coaching and teaching team and volunteer helpers at all times.
- Get involved in club decisions, it's your sport too.

We expect certain standards of behaviour from our members. By becoming a member of the club and therefore agreeing to this Code of Conduct you agree to:

- Follow the rules of the club, squad or activity at all times.
- Make our club and activity a fun, happy, friendly and welcoming place to be.
- Respect and celebrate differences in our club or activity and not discriminate against anyone else on the grounds of age, gender, race, sexual orientation, faith, ability or any other relevant characteristic.
- Understand that the use of abusive or inappropriate language, bullying, physical violence or any other behaviour which hurts others will not be tolerated by the club.
- Respect the privacy of others especially in the changing rooms.
- Not use any mobile device, at any time, in the changing rooms or cubicles.
- Report any concerns you have about others taking photographs or footage of others in the changing rooms or poolside.
- Report any incidents of bullying or unkind behaviour to the club, even if you're just a witness.

•

Breaches of this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action being taken against you by the club committee and any behaviour which may be a criminal offence will be reported to the Police and any other relevant authority, by the club.
