

Mitcham Marlins

Parents Code of Conduct

- Complete and return all forms as requested by the club
- Adhere to the club's rules and regulations
- Ensure the club has up to date information regarding both your contact details and your child's medical details
- Please report any changes in your child's health to their coach before the session starts
- Deliver and collect your child punctually to and from training sessions and competitions
- Please inform a member of the committee if there is an unavoidable problem that will prevent you from collecting your child on time
- Inform the club welfare officer or their coach before a session if your child is to be collected early
- If your child is to be collected by someone other than yourself, the club welfare officer must be informed beforehand (the name and contact number of the person will be required)
- Ensure your child is properly attired for training and competitions and has all equipment required
- If you wish to talk to the coach regarding your child or their training, please contact either the club welfare officer or club secretary who can help arrange this
- Encourage your child to behave in an appropriate and respectful way at all times in accordance with their own code of conduct
- Do not use inappropriate language within the club environment
- Treat everyone connected with the club or a competition equally and with respect
- Behave responsibly at all times when spectating at training or a competition
- Refrain from going on poolside unless requested to do so or in event of an emergency
- Parents of members under 11 years old must remain in the building at all times during training

The club will:

- Inform you at once if your child is ill and ensure their wellbeing until you are able to collect them
- Ensure the club's safeguarding guidelines are adhered to at all times
- Ensure all activities are properly supervised and coached
- Deal with breaches of the club's rules and regulations in accordance with the disciplinary policy

Parents have a right to:

- Make a complaint to the club if they feel the club or one of its members is not acting in accordance with the club or Swim England rules and regulations
- Details of how to make a complaint were included in your welcome pack or they can be obtained from the club welfare officer
