Funding Requests

July 2023

Witney Water Polo Club (received 11 May 2023)

“Level 2 water polo coaching course £620. Witney Water Polo Club is a masters only club.

The reason for our application was that in the ONB minutes, I noticed that Oxford Uni polo team had been awarded a grant towards a similar level 2 coaching course, otherwise I wasn't aware grants were available.”

The Treasurer asked for details of other sources funding for the course which have been sought and for course completion date.

“We haven't made any direct applications but we have had a number conversations about funding starting with Ben MacDonald from Swim Southeast when I did my level 1 course, to Better GLL and WODC the outcome of which seemed somewhat negative because we were a masters club and not going out in the community to develop youth opportunities.

I'm about halfway through the course, which is due to finish mid-June. Hopefully I should know by mid-July if I have passed.”

Treasurer's note: From my records (November 2017 onwards), this club has not made any previous funding requests. The application does meet our criteria for a Level 2 Coaching Course funding application for 33% of the costs.

Regional Development Programme 2023/2024

The Swim England national talent team has requested that regions make some changes in their development plans for the 2023/2024 season. The programme and selection policy will be promoted in the coming weeks but the main change is the age group to 13 years and selection will be two selection bands, January – July and August to December. The first regional camp will take place on the 3rd September, therefore selection letters will go out at mid-July.

Regional Distance Programme

The first of the two days of camps took place in Egham on the 4th June. The open water day was led by Ian Keys and Joe Evans (Wycombe), Carol and David Butler (Bracknell) were the Team Managers for the day. Selected ONB athlete was Lucia Lopez, CMK.
